In-Person Individual Counseling Sessions to Resume in July

Beginning in July, SDRS retirement planners will once again be traveling to communities throughout South Dakota to meet one-on-one with members for personal retirement counseling sessions. SDRS continues to be mindful of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) regulations and guidelines related to COVID-19. For SDRS, this means that sneeze guards will be used for in-person visits and staff will be disinfecting work areas between sessions. Face coverings will be optional. For our members' convenience, SDRS will continue to offer individual counseling sessions by phone or via virtual meeting with Microsoft Teams.
